IT'S YOUR LIFE, BE THE DIRECTOR!

What you will come away with:

- you will be yourself, only better.
- you will deliver your content with power and passion.
- you will learn to read your audience.
- you will learn to captivate your audience.
- you will learn to pay attention to your surroundings.
- you will be given a script (blueprint) for creating and delivering dynamic presentations that you can follow each and every time.
- you will be confident and comfortable presenting yourself in any situation.
- you will love the “actor” in you.

“Any form of art is a form of power, it has impact, it can affect change — it can not only move us, it makes us move.”
Ossie Davis

D Rehearse, Rehearse, Rehearse

Choose this program IF:

- your presentations are good but you want them to be great.
- you want to create more impact.
- you need some polishing and a little more rehearsing.
- you want to add some new skills to your repertoire.
- you want to access your “star quality”.

Requirements: One fifteen minute presentation that you are familiar with.

Includes 3 sixty minute sessions.

D Take It from the Top

Choose this program IF:

- your presentations need some pizzazz.
- your confidence in this area is a little shaky.
- you want to learn how to manage your stage fright.
- you want some direction around creating and infusing your material with drama.
- you want to access and develop your “star quality”.
- you want some new tools to support your work.

Requirements: One fifteen minute presentation that you are familiar with.

Includes 5 sixty minute sessions.

D A Star Is Born

Choose this program IF:

- you want to step into the role of an actor and go into rehearsal.

These are the areas you will focus on:

Vocal Work — pitch, tone, and pace.
Body Language and Movement — exploring eye contact; learning to play to the warm bodies in the house.
Story-Telling — infuse your performance with life and drama.

Humor and its role in your presentations.
Star Quality — accessing the power within you.

Requirements: One fifteen minute presentation that you are familiar with.

Includes 7 sixty minute sessions.
